

SCGWA 2017 SPRING MEETING - Friday, May 12, 2017

WORKSHOP #1 (8:30-9:30am)

Pump Sizing Theory

Robb Armstrong, CSP - Franklin Electric

Robb Armstrong is a certified sales professional of water systems. He has 16 years with Franklin Electric and 11 years in the field working on solving issues. He has served 2 years as a board member for the NC Ground Water Association and recently co-chaired SC Ground Water Association's first ever golf tournament where $6000 was raised. In this workshop, Robb will discuss basic pump design and operation. He will cover pump parts, pump operations, and pump sizing.

WORKSHOP #2 (9:45-10:45am)

Hydrogeology of the South Carolina Piedmont

Lee Mitchell - Hydrofinders LLC

Lee Mitchell is a hydrogeologist and owner/operator of Hydrofinders, a hydrogeological consulting firm whose main area of expertise is water-well siting in the Piedmont Geologic Region of South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia. Lee has 26 years of experience as a hydrogeologist with the SC Department of Natural Resources. After taking early retirement from DNR in 2011, he founded Hydrofinders and also became a Physical Sciences Instructor at North Greenville University. In this workshop, Lee will share information about the hydrogeology of the South Carolina Piedmont that he has gathered over his many years in the field. If time permits, he will also discuss "Springs of South Carolina."

WORKSHOP #3 (11:30am-12:30pm)

Employment Law: Is Your Company Compliant?

Brian Magargle - Constangy Law Firm

Brian Magargle of the Constangy Law Firm, a national employment firm, will present and discuss a variety of legal issues helpful to your business. These issues will include recent developments in federal and state employment laws, employee handbook compliance in South Carolina, retaliation issues under the workers' compensation law, the South Carolina Wage and Hour law, and other legal topics. Brian has practiced employment law since 1993 and has experience with a wide variety of employment law issues. He routinely handles a broad range of employee benefit issues for clients of all sizes and is a frequent speaker on new developments in benefits law, especially health care reform.

STAFF WORKSHOP (8:45-10:45am)

The 21st Century Office

Jody Anderson - J.P. Anderson Well & Pump LLC

Jody Anderson is owner of J.P. Anderson Well & Pump, LLC, and has been in business since 2002. He has been a longtime volunteer for the South Carolina Ground Water Association and currently serves as Vice President. In this workshop, Jody will discuss operating a fully mobile office, effective communications, accounts receivable collections, and time management.
